They Died for Me and You.

Four hundred thousand men—
The brave, the good, the true—
In tangled wood, in mountain glen,
On battle plain, in prison pen,
Lie dead for me and you!
Four hundred thousand of the brave
Have made our ransomed soil their grave
For me and you!

In many a fevered swamp,
By many a black bayon,
In many a cold and frozen camp
The weary sentinel ceased his tramp,
And died for me and you! From Western plain to ocean tide Are stretched the graves of those who died

On many a bloody plain

Their ready swords they drew,
And poured their life-blood, like the rain,
A home, a heritage to gain—
To gain for me and you!
Our brothers mustered by our side,
They marched and fought and bravely died,
For me and you!

Up many a fortress wall
They charged—those Boys in Blue—Mid surging smoke and volley'd ball,
The bravest were the first to fall!
To fall for me and you!

For me and you! Good friends, for me and you! In treason's prison hold
Their marryr spirits grew
To stature like the saints of old,
While, 'mid the agonies untold,
They starved for mp and you!
The good, the patient, and the tried,
Four hundred thousand men have died For me and you! Good friends, for me and you!

A debt we ne'er can pay
To them is justly due,
And to the nation's latest day
Our children's children still shall say,
